DETAILED ACTION

Terminal Disclaimer

1. The terminal disclaimer filed on 01 April 2004 disclaiming the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of Application No. 09/970,727 has been reviewed and is accepted. The terminal disclaimer has been recorded.

Claim Objections

2. Claim 28 is objected to because of the following informalities: In claim 28, there is an extra line in step c. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
- 4. Claims 28-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Danforth et al (U.S. Patent 5,997,795).

Danforth et al (see the entire document, in particular, col. 25, line 38 to col. 26, line 11; col. 27, lines 42-68; col. 30, lines 13-49) teach a process of post processing an article formed by solid freeform fabrication to remove a support structure including the steps of providing a temperature controllable environment for the article (e.g., a bath of Bioact VS-0 solvent), placing the article in the temperature controllable environment at a temperature that causes the support structure to transition to a flowable state and removing substantially all of the support structure in the flowable state from the article (note especially col. 30, lines 45-49). With respect to using air as a heat transfer medium (instant claims 29 and 30), Danforth et al teaches the equivalence of removing the support structure by either solvent extraction or heating (note especially col. 27, lines 42-46).

Art Unit: 1732

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-27 are allowable over the prior art references presently of record.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
